

Contents

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	7
LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS	9
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	11
Laurence M. Geary and Oonagh Walsh Introduction	13
I SELF HELP AND MUTUAL AID
Mel Cousins Philanthropy and poor relief before the poor law, 1801–30	23
Laurence M. Geary ‘The best relief the poor can receive is from themselves’: the Society for Promoting the Comforts of the Poor	38
Eoin McLaughlin Charitable loan fund societies in Ireland, c.1820–1914	59
2 LAND AND GUINNESS
Conor McNamara ‘The monster misery of Ireland’: landlord paternalism and the 1822 famine in the West	82
Kevin Mc Kenna Charity, paternalism and power on the Clonbrock Estates, County Galway, 1834–44	97
Joanne McEntee Pecuniary assistance for poverty and emigration: the politics of landed estate management and philanthropy in mid-nineteenth-century Ireland	115

Linda King

- 'Guinness is good for you': experiments in workers' housing and public amenities by the Guinness Brewery and Guinness/Iveagh Trust, 1872–1915 133

3 WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Oonagh Walsh

- 'A person of the second order': the plight of the intellectually disabled in nineteenth-century Ireland 161

Sarah-Anne Buckley

- 'Saver of the children': the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children in Ireland, 1889–1921 181

Mary Pierse

- From lace making to social activism: the resourcefulness of campaigning women philanthropists 198

4 CULTURAL PHILANTHROPY: ART AND LITERATURE

Philip McEvansoneya

- Cultural philanthropy in mid-nineteenth-century Ireland 210

John Wilson Foster

- Doing good and being bad in Victorian Ireland: some literary and evolutionary perspectives 225

INDEX

241