

Sheriffs of Dublin, 1399-1513

Name	Date	Reference	Notes
Thomas Mareward	1399	Foley, p. 286
Thomas Mareward [Mawereward]	1400	Pat 1 H IV	Appointed 3 May, by election
Thomas Mareward	1401	Foley, p. 286
Thomas Serjeant	1401	8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 530	Uncertain but probable. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 3 Hen. IV (1401-2) with proffers of Michaelmas in that year. Thomas Serjeant and John Darcy are listed as having made proffers. Their bailiwicks are not given, but Dublin and Meath (respectively) are likely
Thomas Mareward	1402	Pat 3 H IV	April.
Thomas Cruise [Son of Simon]	1404	CPR 1401-1405 , p. 406	Appointment of Fitzmaurice, 7 July, to replace Thomas son of Simon Cruise, late sheriff. The account of Co. Dublin on the Irish pipe roll for the period 28 Nov. 1403 to 24 Dec. 1404 listed Fitzmaurice, Thomas son of Simon Cruise, John Derpatrick and Thomas Mareward as sheriffs - NLI, MS 761, p. 267. Appointed in 5 Hen. IV (1403-4) - NAI Ferguson repertory, ii, p. 18.
John Derpatrick	1404	NLI 761 p. 267	Date uncertain. The account of Co. Dublin on the Irish pipe roll for the period 28 Nov. 1403 to 24 Dec. 1404 listed Fitzmaurice, Thomas son of Simon Cruise, John Derpatrick and Thomas Mareward as sheriffs - NLI, MS 761, p. 267. Cruise was apparently sheriff until 7 July 1404 and Fitzmaurice sheriff thereafter, so it is probably that Derpatrick, Mareward or both served before the period of this account.
John Fitz Maurice [Son of John]	1404	CPR 1401-1405 , p. 406	Appointed by English letters patent, 7 July 1404. The account of Co. Dublin on the Irish pipe roll for the period 28 Nov. 1403 to 24 Dec. 1404 listed Fitzmaurice, Thomas son of Simon Cruise, John Derpatrick and Thomas Mareward as sheriffs - NLI, MS 761, p. 267.
Thomas Mareward	1404	NLI 761 p. 267	Date uncertain. The account of Co. Dublin on the Irish pipe roll for the period 28 Nov. 1403 to 24 Dec. 1404 listed Fitzmaurice, Thomas son of Simon Cruise, John Derpatrick and Thomas Mareward as sheriffs - NLI, MS 761, p. 267. Cruise was apparently sheriff until 7 July 1404 and Fitzmaurice sheriff thereafter, so it is probably that Derpatrick, Mareward or both served before the period of this account.
John Fitz Maurice	1405	NAI Ferguson repertory ii, p. 38	Date uncertain. Ferguson's index to the memoranda rolls has him appointing an attorney in 7 Hen. IV (1405-6), apparently while serving as sheriff of Dublin. Appointed July 1404 and still sheriff 1406 - Foley, p. 287.
Thomas Cruise [Son of Simon]	1406	RC 8/33 191	Elected and commissioned 8 Nov. 1406, RC 8/33 p. 193

Sheriffs of Dublin, 1399-1513

Name	Date	Reference	Notes
John Fitz Maurice	1406	Foley, p. 287	Appd July 1404 and still sheriff 1406, citing CPR and D'alton
Robert White	1406	RC 8/33 188
Walter Tyrell	1408	Pat 9 H IV	Commission to levy smoksilver, August. Tyrell held the county court of Dublin in December 1407 - BL Add. Ch. 33600, m. 8v.
Walter Tyrell	1409	Pat 10 H IV	One of commission to investigate those transporting wheat, grain or fish out of Ireland. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 11 Hen. IV headed 'Commissions of Michaelmas term, 11 Hen. IV (1409)'. Despite this heading the roll apparently included record of proffers made by Walter Tyrell - 8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 531.
Thomas Tyrell	1414	RC 8/34 12	Michis proffers: Very probably a mistake for Walter, who proffers Easter preceding. Foley p. 287
Walter Tyrell	1414	RC 8/34 2
John Talbot [Son of Reginald]	1416	Pat 4 H V	Appointed 7 Oct. by election of commons, RC 8/36 28-9. Sworn to render account faithfully, 13 Oct. Proffers in Easter term 5 Hen. V [1417] - RC 8/37 p. 5.
Walter Tyrell	1416	RC 8/36 5	Easter proffers 4 Hen. V (1416). Proffers Michaelmas following - RC 8/36, p. 25.
John Talbot [Son of Reginald]	1417	RC 8/37 16	Proffers Easter and Michaelmas term, 5 Hen. V - RC 8/37 pp. 5, 16
John Talbot [Son of Reginald]	1418	Pat 6 H V	Receives writ of December 1417 from John Talbot; responds as sheriff Jan. 1418.
Walter Tyrell	1418	Christ church deeds , no. 275	An inquisition summoned by Tyrell as sheriff of Dublin was enrolled in the memoranda roll of 6 Hen. V (1418-19). 16 July 1420 summoned to account for the issues of the county from 27 April 1418 and since. Shows pardon for the period from 27 April 1418 to 26 Jan 1420, but says he is willing to account for the remainder of his time as sheriff - RC 8/38, 152-3.
Walter Tyrell	1419	NLI GO 192, p. 367	Holds inquisition concerning goods of outlaw at 'Colwellstown' [recte Diswellstown?] Monday before All Saints, 1419. Foley, p. 287: 1418-23
William Fitzwilliam	1420	RC 8/39 30	Called to return writ, 14 October 1420. Charged half a mark for default.
Walter Tyrell	1420	RC 8/38 3	Proffers Easter term 8 Hen. V [1420]; and Michaelmas following, RC 8/38 11. 16 July 1420 summoned to account for the issues of the county from 27 April 1418 and since. Shows pardon for the period from 27 April 1418 to 26 Jan 1420, but says he is willing to account for the remainder of his time as sheriff - RC 8/38, 152-3. Appoints John Barrett his attorney to render the said account - RC 8/39, 56. He receives pardon of debts as 'late sheriff' in January 1420 - CIRCLE, Pat. 7 Hen. V, no. 96.

Sheriffs of Dublin, 1399-1513

Name	Date	Reference	Notes
Walter Tyrell	1421	CI 9 H V	Simply named as sheriff, with no county, CIRCLE, CI 9 Hen. V, no. 45, in list of tallies of debts owed by sheriffs.
Walter Tyrell	1422	RC 8/39 212	Listed for Easter and Michaelmas terms, 10 Hen. V - RC 8/39, pp. 212, 215. In October 1423 Walter, late sheriff of Dublin, was summoned to account for the issues of the county from 20 October 1422 - RC 8/40, pp. 300-1.
John Talbot [Son of Reginald]	1423	Pat 2 H VI	Appointed 25th October during pleasure - RC 8/40 258. Still sheriff the following October - NAI, Ferguson Coll. 3, ff. 20-1. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 3 Hen. VI including amercements of sheriffs and others for failing to make their proffers in Michaelmas of that year (1424). John fitz Reginald Talbot is one of those named - 8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 532.
Walter Tyrell	1423	RC 8/40 254	Michaelmas proffers, 2 Hen. VI (1423)
Walter Tyrell	1425	Pat 3 H VI	Witness to indenture between John Talbot and Donatus Obryn.
Robert Holywood, Knight	1426	CI 5 H VI	As former sheriff, receives payment for his labours in the wars and in levying monies of the king while sheriff, 26 October 1426. He was sheriff in April 1426 when he failed to return a writ to distrain the prior of Kilmainham - NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, ff. 37-8. He was appointed in 4 Hen. VI (1425-6), probably towards the beginning to that regnal year - NAI Ferguson repertory, iii, p. 75. As former sheriff, paid in sums for divers debts, Hilary term 5 Hen. VI (1427) - TNA, E 101/248/1.
John Talbot [of Feltrim]	1427	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, ff. 50-2	Ordered to distrain tenants of the lands of Eleanor Comyn, Michaelmas 6 Hen. VI (1427). Pays in sums for divers debts, Hilary term 5 Hen. VI (1427) - TNA E 101/248/1.
William Fitzwilliam	1428	Stat. Rolls Ire. Hen. VI , pp. 36-39	Date uncertain. Former sheriff in May 1430, when the Irish parliament made reference to a writ 'lately' directed to him to have carts and labourers before John Stanley at Bray, Friday after Michaelmas. Whether this was Michaelmas 1429, Michaelmas 1428 or earlier is not certain. As sheriff, he was ordered to distrain Thomas Field, October 6 Hen. VI (1428) - NAI, M.2675 (Delafield MS), p. 53. Appointed sheriff in 6 Hen. VI (1427-8) - NAI Ferguson repertory iii, pp. 60-1.
John Talbot [of Feltrim]	1430	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 149	Appointed in 8 Hen. VI (1429-30).

Name	Date	Reference	Notes
Alexander Ever, Knight	1434	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 60	Likely in error. Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 12 Hen. VI (1433-4) wherein he is apparently named sheriff of Co. Dublin. As bailiff of St Sepulchre he accounted alongside the sheriff of Dublin for the period 20 Feb. 13 Hen. VI (1435) to 12 May 14 Hen. VI (1436) - NLI 761, p. 301.
Nicholas Holywood [Son of Christopher]	1434	NLI GO 192, p. 382	Betham's notes from the plea roll of 12 Henry VI (1433-1434) include the note 'Nich' fil' Christ' Holywood sheriff'. Presumably sheriff of Dublin was intended. Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 12 Hen. VI (1433-4) in which he is named as sheriff of Dublin - NAI Ferguson repertory, iii, p. 76.
Nicholas Holywood [Son of Christopher]	1435	CI 14 H VI	Receives an unspecified sum from the exchequer as a reward - Irish Exchequer Payments , p. 574. Account of Co. Dublin, 20 Feb. 13 Hen. VI (1435) to 12 May 14 Hen. VI (1436) by Nicholas son of Christopher Holywood sheriff and Alexander Ever bailiff of St Sepulchre, by Thomas Duff their attorney - NLI 761, p. 301.
Christopher Howth, Esquire [of Howth]	1438	NLI GO 192, p. 392	In August 1438 he was ordered to summon John Pursell and others to appear before the justices of the common pleas in the quindene of Michaelmas then following. Note that CIRCLE, CI 27 Hen. VI, no. 3, this is given as August 1448. That this is in error is confirmed by that fact that both extant versions of Pursell's petition (including that from which the CIRCLE entry is taken) clearly have 16 Hen. VI and not 26 Hen. VI - NAI, M. 2653, pp. 138-40; NLI, GO 192, pp. 392-3. Howth may have served again in the following years. The memoranda roll for Michaelmas term 26 Henry VI (1447) cites an account for Co. Dublin from 16 February 19 Henry VI (1441) to 30 April 20 Henry VI (1442), as rendered 'in the last named year' (1442) by Robert Bath of Laundeyston, then sheriff, and Thomas Field, esq., Christopher Cruise of Kilsallaghan and Christopher Howth of Howth, late sheriffs. Field is elsewhere stated to have served for most of the year 1441. The dates of service of Howth and Cruise are not specified but presumably predate the account - NAI, M. 2675 (Delafield MS), p. 63.

Name	Date	Reference	Notes
Christopher Cruise [of Kilsallaghan]	1439	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 40	Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 17 Hen. VI (1438-9) recording his appointment as sheriff in that year. The memoranda roll for Michaelmas term 26 Henry VI (1447) cites an account for Co. Dublin from 16 February 19 Henry VI (1441) to 30 April 20 Henry VI (1442), as rendered 'in the last named year' (1442) by Robert Bath of Laundeyston, then sheriff, and Thomas Field, esq., Christopher Cruise of Kilsallaghan and Christopher Howth of Howth, late sheriffs. Field is elsewhere stated to have served for most of the year 1441. The dates of service of Howth and Cruise are not specified but presumably predate the account - NAI, M. 2675 (Delafield MS), p. 63.
Thomas Field, Esquire	1440	Ormond deeds , iii, no. 135	In Feb. 1440 he was ordered to take Thomas Fitzmaurice of Kildroght (Celbridge) gentleman and have his body before the king to answer for his felonies, including his adherence to the O'Byrnes.
Robert Bath [of Laundeystown (Lanestown, par. Donabate)]	1441	NAI, M.2675 (Delafield MS), p. 63	Memoranda roll for Michaelmas term 26 Henry VI (1447) cites an account for Co. Dublin from 16 February 19 Henry VI (1441) to 30 April 20 Henry VI (1442), as rendered 'in the last named year' (1442) by Robert Bath of Laundeyston, then sheriff, and Thomas Field, esq., Christopher Cruise of Kilsalghan and Christopher Howth of Howth, late sheriffs. The dates of service of Howth and Cruise are not specified but presumably predate the account.
Thomas Field, Esquire	1441	NAI, M.2675 (Delafield MS), p. 57	In June 1442 Field, as late sheriff, made fine for the issues of the county from February 1441 to December following. Sheriff at Michaelmas proffers, 20 Hen. VI (1441) - NAI, M.2675 (Delafield MS), p. 57. Had been sheriff in 1440 and thus appears to have served as sheriff for two years - NAI, M.2675 (Delafield MS), pp. 57-8
Richard Mareward, Baron of Skreen	1442	NLI GO 192, p. 385	Extracts for the plea rolls for the year 20 Hen. VI (1441-2) name him as sheriff of Dublin. As he is not named among the sheriffs for the accounting period ending 30 April 20 Hen. VI (1442) he was presumably sheriff after this date - see NAI, M. 2675 (Delafield MS), p. 63. Named as sheriff in 21 Hen. VI (1442-3) - NAI Ferguson repertory, iii, p. 94.
Robert Burnell [Son of John]	1444	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 7	Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 22 Hen. VI (1443-4) wherein he is named as sheriff.
Thomas Talbot	1444	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 149	Ferguson's index to the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 22 Hen. VI (1443-4) in which he is named as sheriff.

Name	Date	Reference	Notes
Robert Bath, knight [of Laundestown (Lanestown, par. Donabate)]	1446	Ormond deeds , iii, no. 165	Ordered to distrain tenants of certain lands in the king's hand by minority of Geoffrey Travers, January 1446. Receives a similar order the following June, concerning dower lands of Matilda, widow of Richard Talbot - NAI, Ferguson Coll. 3, pp. 150-151v. Late sheriff in 1448 - Dowdall Deeds, no. 448. See also Foley, p. 287
Nicholas Holywood [of Artane]	1447	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 178	List of sheriffs for 26 Hen. VI (1447-1448). Probably Michaelmas 1447, as Flatsbury, listed as sheriff of Kildare, had been in that office early in 1447. Nicholas Holywood of Artane, sheriff in 27 Hen. VI (1448-9) - NLI GO 192, p. 391.
Robert Burnell	1449	8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 534	Uncertain. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 28 Hen. VI with amercements apparently of sheriffs and other officers who failed to come to Michaelmas proffers that year (1449). Robert Burnell and Richard son of Thomas Vale were amerced.
Thomas Field, Esquire [of Fieldstown]	1449	Pat 28 H VI	October 1449. County blotted out but elsewhere Field is attested as sheriff of Dublin in this year - NAI, M.2675 (Delafield MS), p. 64; Ormond Deeds, iii, no 165. Appointed by election of the commons of the county, 20 October, and accorded the title of esquire. He is sworn to render faithful account for issues of Co. Dublin 29 October - NAI, M.2675 (Delafield MS), pp. 64-5. Proffers Easter term 28 Hen. VI (1450) and Michaelmas following - NAI, M.2675 (Delafield MS), p. 65
Robert Bath, Esquire [of Laundestown (Lanestown, par. Donabate)]	1452	Stat. Rolls Ire. Hen VI , pp. 292, 704-7	Date uncertain but sheriff for some of the period 1451-2. An act of the Irish parliament of 30 Hen. VI (1451-2) discharged Bath, sheriff of Dublin, of £6 11s 2d. Bath was ordered to extend the lands of Piers Coolock following a judgement against him in a suit of debt, sometime after June 1451.
Robert Burnell, Knight	1452	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 178	List of sheriffs for 31 Hen. VI (1452-1453). Probably taken from Michaelmas proffers of 1452. Burnell in mercy 32 Hen. VI (1453-4) for failure to have the body of John Heyne - NAI, Ferguson Coll. 3, p. 202.
Robert Burnell, Knight	1454	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 211v	Date uncertain. Among Ferguson's extracts from the memoranda rolls of 35 Hen. VI (1456-7) are two orders to Robert Burnell, kt., sheriff of Dublin, to pay 40s and 20s granted to Christopher Fox, clerk of the exchequer, 17 Dec. 1454 and 24 May 1455 respectively. It is not absolutely clear whether the dates refer to the grants to Fox or the orders to Burnell. Burnell was certainly sheriff in 35 Hen. VI.

Name	Date	Reference	Notes
Richard Mareward, Baron of Skreen; Knight	1456	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 206	Former sheriff, date not specified. Given day to account in 35 Hen. VI (1456-7).
Robert St Laurence, Esquire	1456	Stat. Rolls Ire. Hen. VI , pp. 464-7	Date uncertain. As former sheriff he was exonerated of £20 owed to Hugh Wogan, clerk of the crown, by other former sheriffs of the county.
Robert Burnell, Knight	1457	Stat. Rolls Ire. Hen. VI , pp. 608-11	Former sheriff in 1459. As sheriff given day to account in 35 Hen. VI (1456-7) - NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, p. 206. In May 1457 a jury was summoned to inquire whether Burnell could have distrained Henry Walsh of Carrickmines for 40s, despite his claim to the contrary - ibid. , p. 206v.
Richard Mareward, Baron of Skreen; Knight	1459	Stat. Rolls Ire. Hen. VI , pp. 604-5	In February 1459 he had a grant of £10 from the issues of the county as a reward for his services. Appointed in 37 Hen. VI (1458-9) - NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 98.
John Barnewall [of Drimnagh]	1460	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 23	Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 38 Hen. VI (1459-60) wherein he is named as sheriff. An account of the city of Dublin in 2 Edw. IV (1462-3) by Robert Burnell, kt., mayor (1461-2), John Tankard and Thomas Barby, bailiffs, includes mention of John Barnwall of Drimnagh esq., late sheriff of Dublin - NLI MS 761, p. 323.
Robert Burnell, Knight	1461	RC 8/41 7-8	Date uncertain, but probably during 1461. The memoranda roll of Easter 6 Edw. IV (1466) includes hearing of account of County Dublin for period 14 July 1461 to 11 October 1463 by Robert Bath of Laundestown, esq., sheriff, and Robert Burnell kt., late sheriff. In 1466 Bath's electors make fine with the King for the issues of county Dublin from 30 January 1462 to 28 February 1463 - RC 8/43, 70-1. It is probable that Burnell was sheriff either for the period from July 1461 to January 1462, or possibly from February to October 1463; alternatively the fact that he is referred to as former sheriff in that account (in contrast to Bath) may mean that the account included legacy debt from Burnell's time as sheriff before 1461. Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 39 Hen. VI (Sept. 1460-Mar. 1461) wherein he is named as sheriff - NAI, Ferguson repertory, iii, p. 21.

Name	Date	Reference	Notes
Robert Bath, Esquire/Knight [of Laundestown (Lanestown, par. Donabate)]	1462	RC 8/41 7-8	Date not specified but sometime between July 1461 to October 1463. Hearing of account of county for period 14 Jul. 1 Edw. IV - 11 October 30 - in Easter 6 Edw. IV by Robert Bath of Laundestown, esq., sheriff, and Robert Burnell kt. late sheriff. In 1466 Bath's electors make fine with the king for the issues of county Dublin from 30 January 1462 to 28 February 1463 - RC 8/43, 70-1. Bath is given the title of knight in later entries in the memoranda roll of Easter 6 Edw IV (1466) - RC 8/41, 97, 99.
John Barnewall, Esquire [of Drimnagh]	1464	RC 8/41 95-6	In February 1467 he made fine for the issues of the county from 12 May 1464 to May 1465
Robert Burnell, Knight	1465	Cl 5 E IV	Ordered to pay sums 40s to Thomas Sharp, December 1465. Proffers Easter term 6 Edw. IV, RC 8/41 24. Receives writ as sheriff of Dublin July 1466 - RC 8/41, 79. Deceased by 12 November 1466, when his son and widow are sworn to render account for the issues of the county - RC 8/41, 156. 28 January 1467 commission to levy his debts issued to his widow, sons and others - RC 8/41 35-7. In February they made fine for the issues of County Dublin from March 1466 to September following - RC 8/41, 95.
Peter Travers, Esquire	1465	RC 8/41 59-60	In May 1466 Wallingford, late subsheriff of Peter Travers, late sheriff, was accused of embezzling the issues of the county court in November 1465 for Travers' personal use. In February 1467, Travers' electors made fine for the issues of the county from May 1465 to March 1466 - RC 8/41, 95
James Blackney, Esquire [Blakeney; [of Harristown]]	1466	RC 8/41 32	Appointed 11th October; John Wallyngford clk sworn in as sub-sheriff, 16th October - RC 8/41 32
John Barnewall, Esquire [of Drimnagh]	1468	RC 8/41 243	24 July 1470 Barnewall, described as sheriff (not former sheriff) of Dublin makes fine for profits of the county from 21 Nov. 8 Edw. IV (1468) to '4 July of the same year', apparently 1470.

Name	Date	Reference	Notes
John Burnell, Esquire	1468	RC 8/41 263-4	An abbreviated record commission calendar version of an extract from the great roll of 10 Edw. IV recorded the following entry: "Joh'es Burnell Ar' (probably Armiger, perhaps arrears?) Vic' Dublin". John was held to owe £10 on this account, but was exonerated when he showed a pardon of all debts dated 1 August 1469. Either John served at some point before this, or the debt is that of his father Robert Burnell, for which John had sworn to render faithful account after his father's death in 1466. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 8-9 Edw. IV with proffers of sheriffs and other officers, Easter 8 Edw. IV (1468). John Burnell and Thomas Eustace are named as having proffered, counties not given - 8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 536.
John Barnewall, Esquire [of Drimnagh]	1469	RC 8/41 243	24 July 1470 Barnewall, described as sheriff (not former sheriff) of Dublin makes fine for profits of the county from 21 Nov. 8 Edw. IV (1468) to '4 July of the same year', apparently 1470.
John Burnell	1470	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 229	Named as sheriff on the memoranda roll of 10 Edw. IV (1470-71); presumably sheriff until 28 Nov. 1470, when Thomas Sherlock was appointed.
Richard Mareward, Baron of Skreen	1470	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, ff. 255-255v	Elected in May 1470 but did not take up office. When summoned to answer he pleaded that he was a citizen of the city of Dublin and by franchise of the same was exempt from serving as sheriff of Co. Dublin against his will. Judgement was in his favour.
Thomas Sherlock, Esquire [of Rathcreedan]	1470	RC 8/41 213	Appointed by election, 28 November.
John Burnell [of Castleknock]	1472	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 231	Date uncertain. Ferguson's brief calendar of the memoranda roll of 12 Edw. IV (1472-3) has him named as sheriff on the 1st membrane of that roll.
Thomas Sherlock, Gentleman [of Rathcreedan]	1472	RC 8/41 414	Sheriff in January 1472. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 12 Edw. IV with ameracements of sheriffs and other officers who failed to come to Easter proffers that year (1472). Thomas Sherlock and Edward Plunkett are named as having made proffers in that term, counties not given - 8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 536.
John Talbot, Esquire [of Belgard]	1473	RC 8/41 306	Appointed by election in February. See also Stat. Ire. Edw. IV , ii, p. 139

Name	Date	Reference	Notes
Maurice (Robert in error) Burghill, Knight	1474	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 270	Elected December 1474 but did not take up office. In 15 Edw. IV (1475-6) it was found that Burghill had refused to take up office when elected sheriff of Co. Dublin. When summoned to answer he pleaded that he was a citizen of the city of Dublin and by franchise of the same was exempt from serving as sheriff of Co. Dublin against his will. Judgement was in his favour - NAI, Ferguson Coll. 3, pp. 256, 270. He is named Sir Robert Burghill pp. 256, 270, and Maurice Burghill, p. 232. Maurice Burghill was married to Margaret, one of the Hollywood heiresses, and thus a close relation by marriage of other sheriffs including Peter Travers (who m. Elizabeth, Margaret's sister), and Nicholas Hollywood (her brother). She had been married to Robert Burnell, and was thus mother or step-mother to John Burnell - NAI, Ferguson coll., iii, ff. 76, 101, 211, 226, 227; NAI Ferguson repertory, iv, p. 25; Stat. Rolls Ire. Edw. IV, i, p. 563.
John Woodlock [of Blanchardstown]	1475	NAI Ferguson repertory iv, p. 46	Ferguson's index to the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 14-15 Edw. VI (1474-6) in which he is named as sheriff.
John Talbot, Esquire [of Feltrim]	1479	Plea Roll 19 Edw. IV, p. 43	Makes an arrest, April 1479. Returns a writ the following December - Plea Roll 19 Edw. IV, p. 46. He may also have been sheriff in the previous year. Ferguson's index to the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 18 Edw. VI (1478-9) in which he is named as sheriff - NAI Ferguson repertory iv, p. 43
Robert Holywood [of Artane]	1480	NAI Ferguson repertory iv, p. 26	Ferguson's index to the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 20 Edw. VI (1480-1) in which he is named as sheriff.
John Talbot, Esquire [of Feltrim]	1480	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, ff. 298-9	Sheriff in April 1480 when ordered to have the body of James Welles, merchant, before the barons of the exchequer. Late sheriff in 22 Edw. IV (1482-3) - NAI Ferguson repertory, iv, p. 43.
Nicholas Bath [of Laundestown (Lanestown, par. Donabate)]	1482	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 242	Sheriff in 22 Edw. IV (1482-3).

Sheriffs of Dublin, 1399-1513

Name	Date	Reference	Notes
Richard Caddell, Esquire [of Moortown]	1484	RC 8/33 409	Date uncertain. 10 December 2 Ric. III (1484) as late sheriff he had a commission to levy the debts of his office - RC 8/33, p. 397. Two days later, as sheriff of Dublin, made fine for the issues of the county. It would appear that he was in fact former sheriff at this time as Thomas Luttrell was sheriff for both the preceding Michaelmas and the following Easter terms - RC 8/33, pp. 392, 401. Hearing of account of Thomas Luttrell, sheriff, and of Richard Caddell of Moretown, late sheriff in Trinity term, 2 Ric. III (1485) - ibid. , pp. 544-5
Thomas Luttrell, Esquire [of Luttrellstown]	1484	RC 8/33 392	Sheriff for proffers of Michaelmas, 2 Ric. III (1484). Sheriff at Easter proffers, 2 Ric. III (1485) - RC8/33, p. 401. Hearing of account of Thomas Luttrell, sheriff, and of Richard Caddell of Moretown, late sheriff in Trinity term, 2 Ric. III (1485) - RC 8/33, pp. 544-5. Sheriff in 1 Hen. VII (1485-6) - NAI Ferguson repertory, iv, p. 68.
Nicholas Holywood, Esquire [of Artane]	1493	RC 8/43 51	Listed as sheriff for Michaelmas proffers. Sums were being assigned from his debts of office to pay the fees of the second justice of the common bench in 1496 - BL Royal 18 C. xiv, f. 135.
John Burnell, Esquire [of Balgriffin]	1494	RC 8/43 73	Date uncertain. In Easter term 9 Hen. VII John, described as 'lately sheriff' summoned to account for issues of county
Thomas Fitzwilliam, Esquire [of Westpalstown]	1494	RC 8/43 53	Appointed 21 Jan.; John Luttrell as his deputy. Late sheriff in June 1496 when he paid 3 shillings of divers debts of the county - BL Royal 18 C. xiv, f. 63.
Robert Barnewall	1495	BL Royal 18 C. xiv, f. 23v	Proffers October 1495. Late sheriff in following January - BL, Royal 18 C. xiv, f. 33v; L&P Ric. III & Hen. VII, ii, p. 307.
Peter Talbot, Knight	1495	BL Royal 18 C. xiv, f. 27	Apparently elected in Michaelmas 1495. Still sheriff the following Easter term - BL Royal 18 C. xiv, f. 72v. Makes payment of divers debts the following Michaelmas, ibid. , f. 77.
Peter Talbot, Knight [of Malahide]	1497	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 343	Sheriff in February 1497 when ordered to distraint Richard Beswick. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a description of the roll of 13 Hen. VII with proffers of sheriffs and other officers, Michaelmas that year (1497). William Darcy and Peter Talbot are named, counties not given - 8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 538
Robert Talbot [of Belgard]	1498	RC 8/43 97	Listed as sheriff for Michaelmas proffers, 14 Hen. VII; and for Easter following - RC 8/43 122. In mercy for failure to return writs, Easter and Trinity terms 14 Hen. VII (1499) - RC 8/43 133, 142. Listed as sheriff for Michaelmas proffers, 15 Hen. VII - RC 8/43 156. Replaced by Robert Burnell that October.

Sheriffs of Dublin, 1399-1513

Name	Date	Reference	Notes
Robert Burnell [of Balgriffin]	1499	Pat 15 H VII	Appointed the 8th of October - RC 8/43 171; Easter proffers 15 Hen. VII - RC 8/43 181
Richard Luttrell, Gentleman [of Luttrellstown]	1502	NLI 761 p. 336	Sheriff from 11 May 1502 to 7 Nov. 1503. As former sheriff, given day to render account for issues, Michaelmas term 23 Hen. VII (1507) - RC 8/43, p. 219
Edward Sherlock	1503	NLI 761 p. 336	Sheriff from 7 Nov. 1503 to 2 Oct. 1504.
Robert Talbot [of Belgard]	1504	NLI 761 p. 336	Sheriff after 2 Oct. 1504. Account of Co. Dublin from 2 Oct. 20 Hen. VII (1504) to 29 Jan. 21 Hen. VII (1506), by Robert Talbot and Roger Duff of Kilcoskan sheriffs - NLI 761, p. 339.
Roger Duff, Gentleman [Dowe; of Kilcoskan]	1505	NLI 761 p. 339	Sheriff in 1505-6. Account of Co. Dublin from 2 Oct. 20 Hen. VII (1504) to 29 Jan. 21 Hen. VII (1506), by Robert Talbot and Roger Duff of Kilcoskan sheriffs. As former sheriff, granted commission to levy debts in county Dublin, 2 December 1508 - RC 8/43, p. 273.
Robert Bath, Gentleman [of Cappoge]	1507	RC 8/43 224-5	Commissions of Michaelmas term, 23 Hen. VII [1507] record the appointment of Robert Bath as sheriff of Meath - RC 8/43 211; in error, as in Hilary term following he is recorded as sheriff of Dublin and Gerald Wellesley as sheriff of Meath. Bath proffers as sheriff of Dublin Easter 23 Hen. VII (1508) - RC 8/43, 234; and Michaelmas following - RC 8/43, 261.
Christopher Holywood, Gentleman [of Artane]	1507	RC 8/43 205	Probably sheriff 1506-07; proffers Michaelmas term 23 Hen. VII (1507). Former sheriff in Hilary term 23 Hen. VII (1508) when he seeks day to close his account at the exchequer - RC 8/43, 225. Makes fine for the issues of the county, Hilary term 23 Hen. VII (1508) - RC 8/43, 232.
James Cruise, Gentleman [of Naul]	1509	Pat 24 H VII	26 Feb. Sworn into office 17 April - RC 8/43, 284. Proffers Easter Henry VII (1509) - RC 8/43, 286.

The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a description of the roll of 4-5 Hen. VIII with proffers of sheriffs and other officers, Easter term 1513. Robert Talbot and William More make their proffers, counties not given.

Sheriffs, seneschals, sheriffs of the cross and sheriffs of the liberty of Meath, 1399-1513

Name	Office	Date	Reference	Notes
John Darcy	Sheriff (Meath)	1399	NLI 761, p. 259	Precise dates of service not specified. Account of Meath 20 Nov. 20 Ric. II (1396) to 28 January 22 Ric. II (1399) by John Shriggely, kt., seneschal, John Darcy sheriff and Henry Wattenhull seneschal. A further account for Co. Meath from 28 Jan. 22 Ric. II (1399) to 18 Feb. 2 Hen. IV (1401) by John Darcy sheriff, John Shriggeley seneschal of the liberty and Richard Laundey sheriff - ibid. , p. 272.
John Fitz Eust [sic, recte FitzEustace?]	Seneschal (Meath)	1399	NLI 13, p. 151	Almost certainly in error. Seneschal in 1 Hen. IV (1399-1400), according to a list of seneschals compiled in the 18th century from unknown sources. Highly questionable as Fitz Eustace does not appear in the account of Meath for the period 28 Jan. 22 Ric II (1399) to 18 Feb 2 Hen. IV (1401) on the Irish pipe roll - NLI MS 761, p.
John Darcy	Sheriff (Meath)	1401	8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 530	Uncertain but probable. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 3 Hen. IV (1401-2) with proffers of Michaelmas in that year. Thomas Serjeant and John Darcy are listed as having made proffers. Their bailiwicks are not given, but Dublin and Meath (respectively) are
William Nugent, Baron of Delvin	Sheriff (Meath)	1401	Pat 4 H IV	Appointed 10 Nov 1401. A memorandum of the English exchequer records the king's grant, on the advice of his council and by reason of the good record which he received from Sir John de Stanley, lt. in Ireland, of his journeys and services, to William Nugent, baron of Delvin, of the shrievalty of Meath for the term of four years, if the lt. assents. The memorandum is dated 'December 1399-July 1401' - Dryburgh and Smith (eds.), 'Select calendar of unpublished material', p. 175.
William Nugent, Baron of Delvin	Sheriff (Meath)	1402	Pat 4 H IV	Elected by commons, granted 21 Nov; office "which he had held for the preceding year". Sheriff in June 1402 - NAI Ferguson Coll. 2, p. 146.
John Darcy, Esquire	Sheriff (Meath)	1403	Pat 4 H IV	Appointed 15 Feb.
John Darcy	Sheriff (Meath)	1404	NAI, M.2675 (Delafield MS), p. 24	Sheriff, 16 June 5 Hen. IV (1404). The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 6 Hen. IV including amerancements of sheriffs and others failing to make their proffers in Michaelmas 6 Hen. IV (1404). Darcy is named but his bailiwick is not given - 8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 530

Sheriffs, seneschals, sheriffs of the cross and sheriffs of the liberty of Meath, 1399-1513

Matthew Hussey	Sheriff (Meath)	1405	NLI 761 p. 263	Precise date unknown. Account of County Meath for the period 8 Nov. 4 Hen. IV (1402) to 28 Feb. 26 Hen. IV (1405) on the Irish pipe roll listed Matthew Hussey, John Darcy and William Nugent as sheriffs. Given the dates of service for Darcy and Nugent known from other sources, it is likely that Hussey was the serving sheriff or had served very recently. Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls has him named as sheriff in 6 Hen. IV (1404-5) - NAI, Ferguson repertory, ii, p. 51.
William Nugent	Sheriff (Meath)	1405	Pat 6 H IV	Appointed 14 Apr.; accounts with Hussey and Darcy, RC 8/33 p. 289 - owes 51/19/11, which pardoned
John Darcy, Esquire	Sheriff (Meath)	1406	Pat 7 H IV	Pardon of William Geyne at request of John Darcy, sheriff, January 1406. Darcy is sheriff for Michaelmas proffers 1406 - RC 8/33, p. 188. Former sheriff in Feb. 1408 when he was given a commission to levy arrears of his office - RC 8/33, pp. 197-8.
Matthew Hussey, Baron of Galtrim	Sheriff (Meath)	1406	RC 8/33 191	Easter proffers 8 Hen. IV (1407); elected by commons of Meath and appointed 8 Nov. 1406 - ibid. , p. 193
Matthew Hussey, Baron of Galtrim	Sheriff (Meath)	1408	Pat 10 H IV	Appointed 18 Oct. 1408, having already proffered Easter 8 Hen. IV (1407) - RC 8/33, p. 191
Christopher Plunket	Sheriff (Meath)	1409	Pat 10 H IV	Justices appointed to take case of novel disseisin arraigned by Matthew Hussey and others against Christopher Plunket, sheriff, and others 20 Jul.
Matthew Hussey, Esquire	Sheriff (Meath)	1410	Pat 11 H IV	William Tancard has letters of pardon for treasons "at the request of Matthew Hussey, esq., sheriff of Meath, 15 March.
Christopher Plunket	Sheriff (Meath)	1413	NAI Ferguson Coll. 2, f. 176	Date uncertain, 1411-13. Among Ferguson's notes from the memoranda roll of 13-14 Hen. IV (1411-1413) is a note recording day given to Christopher Plunkett as heir of lands of Walter or William Cusack, at which time Plunkett is sheriff of Meath. Presumably before Edmund Mortimer had livery of his estates in late 1413. Plunkett late sheriff of King Henry IV in County Meath and others had a commission to levy the debts of his former office, 8 August 1415 - NAI, Ferguson Coll. 2, p. 196.
John Barnewall	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1414	RC 8/34 3	Easter proffers 2 Hen. V (1414); Michaelmas following came not - ibid. , pp. 11-12. Erroneously listed for Wex cross while John Barry listed for Meath.
John Darcy	Seneschal (Meath)	1414	RC 8/34 2	Easter proffers 2 Hen. V (1414); Michaelmas following came not - ibid. , pp. 11-12.
John Barnewall	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1415	RC 8/34 340	Sworn to render faithful account for issues (etc.) of the same, 7 Feb. 1415. Sheriff of the cross of Meath, 3 Hen. V (1415-1416) - NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, p. 55v

Sheriffs, seneschals, sheriffs of the cross and sheriffs of the liberty of Meath, 1399-1513

John Darcy	Seneschal (Meath)	1415	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 55v	Ordered to distrain the Earl of March, 3 Hen. V (1415-1416). He died at some point during this regnal year - NAI, Ferguson Coll. 3, p. 55v. See also Potterton, Trim , p. 372.
John Barnewall [of Frenchtown]	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1416	Pat 4 H V	Appointed 14 Nov. By election of the commons of the cross of Meath - RC 8/36, p. 33. Michaelmas proffers 4 Hen. V (1416) - RC 8/36 27. Proffers Easter term 5 Hen. V (1417) - RC 8/37 7
Thomas Pensax, Esquire [De Pensax/ Despensax?]	Seneschal (Meath)	1416	RC 8/36 5	Easter proffers 4 Hen V (1416); as late seneschal of Meath makes fine for debts of returns etc., 11 Dec. 1416 - RC 8/36, pp. 565-6; late seneschal sworn to render account 17 Oct. 1416, the same day that Thomas Talbot's attorney sworn to render account for Talbot as seneschal - RC 8/36, pp. 615-16; late seneschal to given day to close his account, Hilary term 4 Hen. V (1417), RC 8/36, p. 668.
Thomas Talbot, Knight [Taillor, in error - RC 8/36, p. 725]	Seneschal (Meath)	1416	RC 8/36 26	Michaelmas proffers 4 Hen. V (1416); attorney sworn to account, 17 Oct. 1416, when Thomas given title of knight - RC8/36, p. 615; summoned to close his account of the liberty, Hilary term 4 Hen. V (1417) - RC 8/36 p. 668. Proffers Easter term 5 Hen. V (1417) - RC 8/37, p. 6. May have been seneschal very early in 1416 - RC 8/37, pp. 157-61. He was appointed by Mortimer during the third year of the reign of Henry V (1415-1416) upon the death of his predecessor John Darcy - NAI, Ferguson Coll. 3, p. 55v; NAI Ferguson repertory, ii, p. 155. Note that this is in conflict with the memoranda roll for 4 Hen. V which has Thomas Pensax proffer as seneschal in Easter term 1416.
John Barnewall	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1417	RC 8/37 18-19	Proffers Easter and Michaelmas term, 5 Hen. V (1417) - RC 8/37 pp. 7, 18
Thomas Talbot, Knight	Seneschal (Meath)	1417	Pat 6 H V	Proffers Easter and Michaelmas term, 5 Hen. V [1417] - RC 8/37 6, 18; Potterton, 372, has him as seneschal for 1418-19
John Brown [of Newtown Trim]	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1420	RC 8/39 45	In Trinity term 8 Hen. V (1420) appoints Philip Walsh as his attorney to receive and amend writs at excehequer. 'Of Newtown Trim' - TNA E 101/247/9.
Thomas Cusack, Esquire	Seneschal (Meath)	1420	RC 8/38 104	Appointed by letters patent of Edmund Mortimer dated at Trim, 29 April 1420. Proffers Michaelmas 8 Hen. V (1420) - RC 8/38, p. 13. In mercy for failure to return writs, Easter term 8 Hen. V (1420) - RC 8/39, pp. 10-11. His attorney sworn to render faithful account, 17 October 1420 - RC 8/39, p. 91. Late seneschal, 1422 - NAI, Ferguson Coll. 3, p. 55v. See also Potterton, Trim , p. 372

Gilbert Hendeley [Hindeley]	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1420	Cl 8 H V	Formerly sheriff, 15 Dec. 1420, charged alongside John Allen with levying debts of his former office (Similar grant dated 18 Feb 1421 in RC 8/38, pp. 23-4). Proffers of Easter term 8 Hen. V (1420) include a Gilbert (surname not given), seneschal (county also omitted) who did not come to proffers - RC 8/38, p. 5. That this in error for Gilbert Hendeley, sheriff of the cross of Meath, is confirmed by the proffer of Hendeley in that capacity in Easter term recorded on the counter-roll of the exchequer for that year - TNA, E 101/247/9. As late sheriff of the cross of Meath, Hendeley is in mercy for failure to return writs, Michaelmas term 8 Hen. V (1420) - RC 8/39, 29. Again as late sheriff swore to render faithful account, 8 October 1420 - RC 8/39, 87. Richard Rowe, clerk, had a tally on Gilbert's debts of office in July 1421 - CIRCLE, Cl. 9 Hen. V, no. 45.
Richard Lynham	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1420	RC 8/39 63	Lately sheriff of the cross, date not given. In Michaelmas term 8 Hen. V (1420) he appoints John Brown (then sheriff of the cross of Meath) as his attorney to render account to the king for his time as sheriff. 18 October 1420 as sheriff he is sworn to render faithful account for the same. This should probably be understood as 'lately sheriff' - RC 8/39, p. 90. With Thomas Ashe, appoints Philip Walsh as attorney to answer why need not satisfy the king of two parts of the fruits etc. of the rectory of Kylekelagh [in the king's hand] by reason of absence, Michaelmas term 8 Hen. V (1420) - RC 8/39, p. 76.
Richard Nugent, Baron of Delvin	Seneschal (Meath)	1420	RC 8/38 5	Proffers Easter term, 8 Hen. V (1420). As late seneschal, makes fine for contempt Easter term 8 Hen. V (1420) - RC 8/39, p. 11. In Michaelmas term 8 Hen. V he is sworn to render faithful account for issues (etc.) of his his bailiwick from 14 Feb. 7 Hen. V (1420) - RC 8/39, p. 91. Late seneschal, 1422 - NAI, Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 55v.
Thomas Talbot	Seneschal (Meath)	1420	Cl 9 H V
John Drake [of Drakestown]	Sheriff (Meath)	1421	Pat 9 H V	Appointed 18 October. As late sheriff, has a day to close his account in Easter term 10 Hen. V (1422) - RC 8/39, p. 254; NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 55v.
Walter Delahide, Knight	Sheriff (Meath)	1422	RC 8/39 213	Sheriff for Easter and Michaelmas proffers, 10 Hen. V (1422) - RC 8/39, pp. 213, 215. Had day to close his account, Easter term 10 Hen. V (1422) - RC 8/39, p. 254. 25 October 1422 ordered to distrain Thomas Cashel - RC 8/40, pp. 192-3. Makes fine for issues from 16 October 1421 to 28 May 1422, although John Drake was presumably sheriff for at least some of this period - RC 8/39, p. 267.

Sheriffs, seneschals, sheriffs of the cross and sheriffs of the liberty of Meath, 1399-1513

John Barnewall	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1423	RC 8/40 254	Michaelmas proffers , 2 Hen. VI (1423) - RC 8/40, p. 254. Easter following - RC 8/40, p. 267
Richard Nugent, Baron of Delvin	Seneschal (Meath)	1423	Pat 1 H VI	Michaelmas proffers , 2 Hen. VI (1423) - RC 8/40, p. 254; and Easter following - RC 8/40, p. 267. Lately seneschal Trinity term 2 Hen. VI (1424) - RC 8/40, p. 178.
Stephen Palmer	Sheriff (Liberty of Meath)	1424	CI 2 H VI	Party in an assise of novel disseisin , April 1424.
Richard Caddell, Knight	Sheriff (Liberty of Meath)	1425	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 29	Date and office uncertain. Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 4 Hen. VI (1425-6) wherein he is named as "late sheriff of Edmund, late earl of March [d. 1425]". It is possible that seneschal is intended.
Thomas Fitzgerald [Fitz Maurice]	Seneschal (Meath)	1425	NLI 13, p. 151	Highly questionable. Seneschal in 1425 according to a list of seneschals compiled in the 18th century from unknown sources. This is likely to be in error; perhaps a misreading of 3 Hen. VI (1424-5) in place of one of the years 30-39 Hen. VI (1451-March 1461). Thomas fitz Maurice Fitzgerald was seneschal of the liberty from 1454-c.1460.
Richard Nugent, Baron of Delvin, Knight	Sheriff (Meath)	1425	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, ff. 11-11v	Returns a writ directed to him to distrain the Countess of March to answer for two-thirds of her dower in Meath, November 4 Hen. VI (1425).
Christopher Plunket, Knight	Sheriff (Meath)	1425	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 27	Appointment, by election of the commons of Co. Meath, 28 November 4 Hen. VI (1425). Matthew English was sworn into office as his clerk the following July - NAI, Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 32. In 1427 Plunkett is described as former sheriff, having served in 5 Hen. VI (1426-7) - CIRCLE, CI. 5 Hen. VI, no. 71. Late sheriff of Meath, pays £13 6s 8d for divers debts, Hilary term 5 Hen. VI (1427) - TNA E 101/248/1. Described as late sheriff in 7 Hen. VI (1428-1429) - NAI, Ferguson Coll. 3, p. 60.
Richard Nugent, Knight	Sheriff (Meath)	1428	CI 6 H VI	Sheriff in July, 6 Hen. VI (1428) - NAI, M.2675 (Delafield MS), p. 52. While sheriff receives a payment from the exchequer, Oct. 1427-Jan. 1429 - Ir. Exc. Payments , p. 562. Potterton lists 1427-9.
Barnaby Nangle, Baron of Navan	Sheriff (Meath)	1430	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, ff. 64-6	Sheriff in October 9 Hen. VI (1430) when he is ordered to distrain the tenants of Meath to answer for the royal service of the army proclaimed at Mullamast, 8 Hen. VI.
Richard Nugent, Baron of Delvin, Knight	Sheriff (Meath)	1430	CI 20 H VI	From a long list of unpaid tallies, July 1441: "tally of 66s 8d [levied] at Hilary 8 Hen. VI [1430, not 1440 as in CIRCLE] from Richard Nugent kt, baron of Delvin, sheriff, from the debts of various persons"
Richard Nugent, Baron of Delvin	Sheriff (Meath)	1431	TNA E 101/248/8	Received a payment of £10 in March in name of reward. See also Potterton Trim , p. 373; Ir. Exch. Payments , p. 569
William Opole, Esquire	Sheriff (Meath)	1432	Pat 10 H VI	Appointed February 1432.

Sheriffs, seneschals, sheriffs of the cross and sheriffs of the liberty of Meath, 1399-1513

John Brige [Recte Brown?]	Sheriff (Meath)	1432	8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 533	Highly uncertain. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 11 Hen. VI including amerancements of sheriffs and others for failing to make their proffers in Michaelmas that year (1432). Nicholas Taaffe and John Brige are named, counties not given. John Bruge, esq., of Athboy, had a pardon in August 1421 - CIRCLE, Pat. 9 Hen. VI, no. 54. John Brugge of county Meath was a mainpignor for Christopher Plunkett in March 1425, and Brugge had a grant of two Mortimer manors in Meath by mainprise of John Dillon and John Barnewall of county Meath in the same month - CIRCLE, Pat. 3 Hen. VI, nos. 48, 140. Alternatively it is possible that Brige (a name otherwise unknown) is in error for Brown.
John Barnewall	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1433	NLI GO 215, f. 59	Office uncertain. Betham's pedigree of the Barnewall family gives John Barnewall as sheriff of Meath in 1433. It is likely that sheriff of the cross is intended. John Barnewall of Frenchtown was sheriff of the cross of Meath in 1414, 1416 and 1423 and apparently again c. 1436.
John Darcy	Seneschal (Meath)	1433	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 55	Appointed seneschal by letters patent of Richard, Duke of York, by letters patent witnessed by 'our council at Trim', 26 September, by reason of the absence of William Welles.
William Welles	Seneschal (Meath)	1433	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 55	Apparently seneschal before 26 September 1433, when John Darcy was appointed seneschal by reason of Welles' absence. Welles appointed in 11 Hen. VI (1432-3) - NAI Ferguson repertory, iii, p. 168.
William Welles, Esquire	Seneschal (Meath)	1435	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 94	Seneschal in Easter term 13 Hen. VI (1435). Account of Meath for the period 26 Oct. 1434 to 16 Feb. 1436 by Richard Nugent, knight, baron of Delvin, Edward Fitz Eustace kt., and William Welles scutifer , seneschals to the Duke of York - NLI 761, p. 298.
Edward Fitz Eustace, Knight	Seneschal (Meath)	1436	NLI 761 p. 298	Account of Meath for the period 26 Oct. 1434 to 16 Feb. 1436 by Richard Nugent, knight, baron of Delvin, Edward Fitzeustace kt., and William Welles scutifer, seneschals to the Duke of York. As Fitzeustace features again as seneschal in the account Feb. 1436 - April 1437, it is reasonable to conclude that he was seneschal for at least some of 1436 - ibid. , p. 311.
Richard Nugent, Baron of Delvin, Knight	Seneschal (Meath)	1436	NLI 761 p. 298	Date not specified but 1434-6. Account of Meath for the period 26 Oct. 1434 to 16 Feb. 1436 by Richard Nugent, knight, baron of Delvin, Edward Fitz Eustace kt., and William Welles scutifer , seneschals to the Duke of York.

Sheriffs, seneschals, sheriffs of the cross and sheriffs of the liberty of Meath, 1399-1513

John Barnewall [of Frenchtown]	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1437	NLI 761, p. 312	c. 1435-1437. Account of the county of the cross of Meath, 31 May 13 Hen. VI (1435) to 13 July 15 Hen. VI (1437) by Thomas Preston, Walter Sherlock, John Cusack of Cushinstown and John Barnewall of Frenchtown, sheriffs.
John Cusack [of Cushinstown]	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1437	NLI 761, p. 312	c. 1435-1437. Account of the county of the cross of Meath, 31 May 13 Hen. VI (1435) to 13 July 15 Hen. VI (1437) by Thomas Preston, Walter Sherlock, John Cusack of Cushinstown and John Barnewall of Frenchtown, sheriffs.
Thomas Preston	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1437	NLI 761, p. 312	c. 1435-1437. Account of the county of the cross of Meath, 31 May 13 Hen. VI (1435) to 13 July 15 Hen. VI (1437) by Thomas Preston, Walter Sherlock, John Cusack of Cushinstown and John Barnewall of Frenchtown, sheriffs.
Walter Sherlock	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1437	NLI 761, p. 312	c. 1435-1437. Account of the county of the cross of Meath, 31 May 13 Hen. VI (1435) to 13 July 15 Hen. VI (1437) by Thomas Preston, Walter Sherlock, John Cusack of Cushinstown and John Barnewall of Frenchtown, sheriffs.
William Welles, Esquire	Seneschal (Meath)	1437	NLI 761, p. 311	Account of the liberty of Meath from 16 Feb 14 Hen. VI (1436) to 16 April 15 Hen. VI (1437) by William Welles scutifer and Edward Fitz Eustace kt., seneschals.
Richard Tuite [of Julianstown]	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1438	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 150	Office uncertain. Probably sheriff of the cross. Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 16 Hen. VI (1437-8) in which he is named as sheriff of County Meath, but as the liberty was then in existence, and as Richard is know to have occupied the office of sheriff of the cross in later years, it is likely that sheriff of the cross of Meath is intended. He served as knight of the shire for the cross in 1420 - Richardson and Sayles, Parliaments and councils, pp. 138, 163.
William Welles, Esquire	Seneschal (Meath)	1439	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 132	In April 17 Hen. VI (1439) William Welles scutifer (esquire) returns a writ directing him to distrain the baron of Slane. Described as seneschal of Meath in Betham's extracts from the plea roll of 18 Hen. VI (1439-40) - NLI, GO 192, p. 385.
Nicholas Dillon [of Proudstown]	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1442	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 56	Office uncertain but probably sheriff of the cross. Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 20 Hen. VI (1441-2) wherein he is named as sheriff of Co. Meath. The liberty of Meath was in existence at this time so it is likely that Ferguson is in error or that this was a mistake on the original.

Richard Tuite [of Julianstown]	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1444	Ir. Exc. Payments , p. 581	Date uncertain but between 1442-1444.
William Welles, Esquire	Seneschal (Meath)	1446	Dryburgh and Smith (eds.) 'Select calendar of unpublished material', p. 226	Witness to an indenture between the earl of Shrewsbury, king's lt., and Thomas O'Farrell, at Trim, 27 Dec. 1446.
John Delahide, Esquire [of Moyclare]	Sheriff (Liberty of Meath)	1447	Lodge MS 1, p. 55	Writ of Richard, Duke of York, to William Boys, justice to hold pleas before his seneschal of the liberty of Meath according to the law and custom of the said liberty, and others, appointing them justices of assise of novel disseisin in case between John, Earl of Shrewsbury and William Nugent, Joan his wife and Richard Starkey, esquire. Witnessed by Chrisopher fitz Christopher Plunkett, knight, seneschal of the said liberty, at Trim, 1 August 25 Hen. VI (1447). The justices so appointed directed a writ to John Delahide, sheriff of the liberty, to cause the defendants to appear.
Christopher Plunket, Esquire [Son of Christopher, kt.]	Seneschal (Meath)	1447	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 159	"Our loyal and beloved esquire, Christopher son of Christopher Plunkett, knight", appointed by letters patent of Richard, Duke of York, issued by 'our council at Trim', the office being vacant by the absence of William Welles, esquire, late seneschal, 15 June 1447. Sworn into office the same day. Christopher issued a writ in the name of Richard, Duke of York, to William Boys, justice to hold pleas of the liberty of Meath, and others, appointing them justices of assise of novel disseisin at Trim, 1 August 25 Hen. VI (1447) - Lodge MS 1, p. 55
William Welles, Esquire	Seneschal (Meath)	1447	Stat. Rolls Ire. Hen. VI , pp. 106-7	Seneschal in January 1447, when he accompanied the earl of Shrewsbury on an expedition against the Irish of Ulster. In June Christopher Plunkett was appointed seneschal by letters patent of Richard, Duke of York, issued by 'our council at Trim', the office being vacant by the absence of William Welles, esquire, late seneschal - NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, p. 159
Edmund Mulso, Knight	Seneschal (Meath)	1449	Stat. Rolls Ire. Hen. VI , pp. 177	An act of parliament of 1449 ordained that the sessions of the liberty of Meath could be held in the absence of the absence of seneschal Sir Edmund Mulso, kt., and that he was to appoint a deputy 'when he will repair into England'.

William Welles, Knight	Seneschal (Meath)	1450	Pat 29 H VI	Appointed by the Duke of York having been nominated by Sir Edmund Mulso. As seneschal and chancellor of Trim, given power to exercise office by deputy by the Irish parliament in November 1450 - Stat. Rolls Ire. Hen. VI , pp. 280-1.
Richard Welles	Seneschal (Meath)	1450	NLI 13, p. 151	Almost certainly in error. Seneschal and chancellor in 1450 according to a list of seneschals compiled in the 18th century from unknown sources. William Welles was seneschal and chancellor in that year, so it may be that Richard is simply in error; or he may have been William's deputy in those offices. As seneschal and chancellor of Trim, William was given power to exercise office by deputy by the Irish parliament in November 1450 - Stat. Rolls Ire. Hen. VI , pp. 280-1. It is possible that Richard was such a deputy. Richard Welles, esq., was son and heir to Sir Willian - Stat. Rolls Ire. Edw. IV , i, pp. 526-9.
Nicholas Ford [of Fordstown]	Sheriff (Liberty of Meath)	1451	NAI, M.2675 (Delafield MS), p. 66	Late sheriff of the liberty, date not specified. Appoints an attorney to represent him against the king in a plea of debt, Michaelmas 30 Hen. VI (1451)
Thomas Cusack, Knight	Seneschal (Meath)	1452	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 178	List of sheriffs for 31 Hen. VI (1452-1453). Probably taken from Michaelmas proffers of 1452
Robert Read [of Readstown]	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1452	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 178	List of sheriffs for 31 Hen. VI (1452-1453). Probably taken from Michaelmas proffers of 1452
Richard Nugent, Baron of Delvin, Knight	Seneschal (Meath)	1453	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 111	Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 31 Hen. VI (1452-3) in which he is named as seneschal.
Robert Rochford [of Kilbride]	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1453	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 129	Office uncertain. Sheriff of the cross likely. Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 31 Hen. VI (1452-3) in which he is named as sheriff of County Meath, but as the liberty was then in existence it is likely that sheriff of the cross of Meath is intended.
Thomas Fitzgerald, Esquire [fitz Maurice]	Seneschal (Meath)	1454	Lodge MS 19, p. 5
John Knight [Knyght]	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1455	Stat. Rolls Ire. Hen. VI , pp. 400-3	Date uncertain. In 1455 the electors of John Knight, formerly sheriff of the cross of Meath, were granted allowance of tallies and other expenses on his account.

Richard Fagan [Son of John]	Sheriff (Liberty of Meath)	1456	D'Alton, History of county Dublin , p. 216	Doubtful. D'Alton asserts that Sir John and Richard Fagan were "high sheriff of the liberties of Meath" in 1423 and 1457 respectively, but provides no reference for this claim; I have altered the years of service in line with D'Alton's errors elsewhere (e.g. Robert Burnell of Balgriffin, sheriff of Dublin in 1500 recte 1499 - D'Alton p. 47; and Nicholas Fagan, collector of supplies of wheat and oats in the barony of Morgallion, 1402 recte 1401 - D'Alton, p. 215). D'Alton further claims that Richard received a pension of 20 marks in the following year on account of expenses sustained in this office, ibid .
Thomas Fitzgerald, Esquire [Fitz Maurice]	Seneschal (Meath)	1456	Stat. Rolls Ire. Hen. VI , pp. 462-3	Parliament at Naas, November 35 Hen. VI (1456) granted permission for the sessions of the liberty of Trim to be held without the presence of seneschal Thomas fitz Maurice, esq. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 35 Hen. VI with amerancements of sheriffs and other officers who failed to come to Michaelmas proffers that year (1456). John Dowdall and Thomas Fitz Maurice are named, bailiwicks not given - 8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 535
Nicholas Brown [of Kilpatrick]	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1457	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 204v	"By election of the community of the county of the cross of Meath", appointed 25 Jan. 35 Hen. VI (1457).
Thomas Fitzgerald [Fitz Maurice]	Seneschal (Meath)	1459	8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 535	Bailiwick not given but almost certainly Meath. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 38 Hen. VI with amerancements of sheriffs and other officers who failed to come to Michaelmas proffers that year (1459). George Clinton and Thomas Fitz Maurice are named, bailiwicks not given.
Thomas Fitzgerald, Knight [Fitz Maurice]	Seneschal (Meath)	1460	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 65	Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 39 Hen. VI (Sept. 1460-March 1461) in which he is named as seneschal. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a description of the same roll with amerancements of sheriffs and other officers who failed to come to Michaelmas proffers that year (1460). Thomas Fitz Maurice and Richard son of Thomas Vale are named, counties not given - 8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 535.

Sheriffs, seneschals, sheriffs of the cross and sheriffs of the liberty of Meath, 1399-1513

Thomas Nangle, Baron of Navan	Sheriff (Meath)	1460	NAI Ferguson repertry iii, p. 111	Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 38 Hen. VI (1459-60) in which he is named as sheriff of County Meath. As the liberty was then in existence, it is possible that he was sheriff of the liberty or of the cross.
Thomas Fitzgerald, Earl of Desmond	Seneschal (Meath)	1462	CPR 1461-67 , p. 196	Questionable. In August 1462 Desmond had a grant of the office of "steward of Connagh (Connacht) and all other lordships belonging to the king's earldom of March in Ireland, with wages of 100 marks yearly from the revenues of the liberty of Meath." A list of seneschals compiled in the 18th century from unknown sources listed Desmond as deputy seneschal in 1463 - NLI MS 13, p. 151; see also Potterton, Trim, p. 372
John Dillon, Esquire [of Staffordstown]	Sheriff (Meath)	1463	Ellis, 'Local government officers, Co. Meath', p. 178	Christopher Dillon and Margaret Netterville of Staffordstown administrators of [the will of] John Dillon of Staffordstown esq. late sheriff of Meath, 9 Edw. IV (1469-70) - NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 220.
Edward Plunket, Esquire [of Balrath]	Sheriff (Meath)	1464	RC 8/41 54-5	Ordered to pay Henry Fitz Rowe, clerk, 26s8d for his labour in writing writs, rolls, and records of common bench, 27 October 1464.
Edward Plunket, Esquire [of Balrath]	Sheriff (Meath)	1465	RC 8/41 152	Sheriff in late March/early April 1465. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 5 Edw. IV with amercements of sheriffs and other officers who failed to come to Easter proffers that year (1465). Christopher Eustace and Edward Plunkett are named, counties not given - 8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 535.
Robert Cusack, Esquire [of Cushinstown]	Sheriff (Meath)	1466	Ellis, 'Local government officers, Co. Meath', p. 177
Edward Plunket, Esquire [of Balrath]	Sheriff (Meath)	1466	RC 8/41 24	Proffers Easter 6 Edw. IV. In mercy for failure to return writs, Michaelmas 6 Edw. IV (1466) - RC 8/41, 125. In 1469 the electors of Edward Plunkett of Balrath, esq., late sheriff of Meath, were distrained to account for the issues of the county for his time in office. The period of office is unspecified, but it seems likely that he held office after 1465 - NAI, m. 2675 (Delafield MSS), p. 70.
Robert Chamberlain	Seneschal (Meath)	1467	NLI 13, p. 151	Highly questionable. Seneschal in 1467 according to a list of seneschals compiled in the 18th century from unknown sources. There is no other indication that the liberty was in existence at this time.

Sheriffs, seneschals, sheriffs of the cross and sheriffs of the liberty of Meath, 1399-1513

Edward Plunkett [of Balrath]	Sheriff (Meath)	1467	NAI Ferguson repertory iv, p. 33	Date uncertain. Ferguson's index to the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 7, 8, 9 Edw. IV (1467-70) in which he is named as sheriff.
Robert Bold, Esquire [of Crickstown]	Sheriff (Meath)	1468	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 226	Date uncertain. He was named as sheriff on the seventh membrane of the memoranda roll of 7-9 Edw. IV (1467-70); the position on the roll suggests a date of 1467 but there is no further detail in Ferguson's notes to confirm this. John Barnewall, named on mem. 6 of the same roll as sheriff of Dublin, appears to have been appointed to that office in late 1468, while Bold was again named as sheriff in 9 Edw. IV (1469-70) - NAI, Ferguson Coll. 3, ff. 226, 228. A date before March 1469 is probable given the existence of a separate roll for 9 Edw. IV alone - ibid. , ff. 228-228v
Robert Bold, Lord of Ratoath, Knight	Sheriff (Meath)	1470	RC 8/41 238	Returned a writ in May 1470. There is some confusion over his title. In February 1471 Robert Bold of Crickstown, esquire, former sheriff of Meath, was given a commission to levy debts of office - RC 8/41, 215-17. Robert Bold, lord of Ratoath, was sheriff of Meath in 9 Edw. IV (1469-70) - NAI, Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 228.
John Plunket, Esquire [of Dunsany]	Sheriff (Meath)	1470	RC 8/41 212	Appointed 18 November. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 11 Edw. IV with amercements of sheriffs and other officers who failed to come to Easter proffers that year (1471). James Gernon and John Plunkett are named as having made proffers in that term, counties not given - 8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 536. See also Stat. Ire. Edw. IV, i, p. 839.
Robert Bold, Lord of Ratoath, Knight	Seneschal (Meath)	1472	Pat 12 E IV	Grant for life by self or sufficient deputy with wages and benefits as William Welles, kt, deceased, formerly held them. For good service in England and Ireland, 12 March 12 Edw. IV (1472) - RC 8/41, p. 313.
Robert Bold	Sheriff (Meath)	1472	RC 8/41 343-4	Date uncertain. An entry in the memoranda roll for 12 Edw. IV (1472) records the seizure of a horse by Thomas Clerk, one of the clerks of Robert Bold, lately sheriff, in June last, apparently referring to June 1472. Bold had a grant of the seneschalship of Meath in May 1472, so sheriff here is probably be in error.

Sheriffs, seneschals, sheriffs of the cross and sheriffs of the liberty of Meath, 1399-1513

Thomas Clerk	Seneschal (Meath)	1472	Pat 12 E IV	During pleasure. To have by self or deputy. Sworn into office 2 June 1472 - RC 8/41, 345. Thomas Clerke had acted as clerk of Sir Robert Bold, former sheriff and seneschal of Meath, and was among a number of men appointed to a commission alongside Robert Bold to levy the debts of Bold's former office as sheriff (not seneschal) of Co. Meath, February 1471 - RC 8/41, 215-17, 343-4. Walter Clerke is park-keeper and sergeant betaghry, 1427-8 - Potterton, p. 376
James Fleming, Baron of Slane	Sheriff (Meath)	1472	Stat. Rolls Ire. Edw. IV, ii, pp. 2-5	In December 1472 the liberty was abolished and James Fleming appointed sheriff by the Irish parliament. In January 1473 James was accused of failure to return divers writs -RC 8/41, pp. 414-15; NAI, Ferguson coll., iii, f. 261.
Edward Plunkett, Esquire	Seneschal (Meath)	1472	Stat. Rolls Ire. Edw. IV, ii, pp. 2-5	The liberty abolished and Plunkett accused of oppression at a parliament held at Naas in December 1472. Granted the office during good behaviour, with power to grant offices pertaining to the liberty, by George, Duke of Clarence, apparently on or before 14 September 1472 - RC 8/41, 366-7. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 12 Edw. IV with amercements of sheriffs and other officers who failed to come to Easter proffers that year (1472). Thomas Sherlock and Edward Plunkett are named as having made proffers in that term, though their bailiwicks are not given. It is possible that Edward here is in error for John, earlier sheriff of Meath, or that Edward was sheriff of the cross. Alternatively it is possible that Edward had served as seneschal for a short period in early 1472 between the appointment of Robert Bold in March and the appointment of Thomas Clerk in June, or that he disputed the office with these others - 8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 536.
John Plunkett	Sheriff (Meath)	1472	NAI Ferguson repertory iv, p. 35	Date uncertain. Ferguson's index to the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 12 Edw. IV (1472-3) in which he is named as sheriff. It is possible that he was late sheriff in this year, or that 12 Edw. IV is in error for 10 Edw. IV. Plunkett is recorded as sheriff on the memoranda roll of the latter year but this is not recorded in Ferguson's index to the same.
Thomas Walsh, Freeholder	Sheriff (Cross of Meath)	1472	RC 8/41 302	Appointed 1 Dec. 1472 and sworn into office the following day.

Sheriffs, seneschals, sheriffs of the cross and sheriffs of the liberty of Meath, 1399-1513

Oliver Plunket	Sheriff (Meath)	1476	Stat. Rolls Ire. Edw. IV, ii, pp. 258-9	Liberty dissolved; Plunkett given 20m grant of issues of the county. Ferguson's index to the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 20 Edw. IV (1480-1) in which he has a pardon as late sheriff - NAI, Ferguson repertory, iv, p. 37.
Henry Grey, Lord Grey; Knight	Seneschal (Meath)	1478	Pat 18 E IV	Confirmation in March 1479 of a grant of the preceding year. Grant in March 1478 of the offices seneschal and treasurer of the liberty for life - CPR, 1477-85, pp. 73-4. Confirmed by the Irish parliament in November 1478 - Stat. Rolls Ire. Edw. IV, ii, pp. 666-71. See also Potterton, Trim, p. 373
Oliver Plunkett	Deputy seneschal (Meath)	1478	NAI Ferguson repertory iv, p. 25	Appointed by Sir Henry Grey, seneschal, as his deputy, 18 Edw. IV (1478-9). The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 18 Edw. IV with amercements of sheriffs and other officers who failed to come to Easter proffers that year (1478). Oliver Plunkett and Laurence Taaffe are named, counties not given - 8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 537.
Oliver Plunket, Esquire	Seneschal (Meath)	1479	Stat. Rolls Ire. Edw. IV, ii, pp. 732-3	Late seneschal of the said pretended liberty'. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 19 Edw. IV with amercements of sheriffs and other officers who failed to come to Easter proffers that year (1479). Oliver Plunkett and Philip Eustace are named, counties not given - 8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 537.
Alexander Plunket	Sheriff (Meath)	1479	Stat. Rolls Ire. Edw. IV, ii, pp. 732-3	To replace 'pretended' seneschal Oliver; elected.
Alexander Plunket [of Balrath]	Sheriff (Meath)	1480	Plea Roll 19 Edw. IV, p. 56	Returns writ of common bench in February 1480. A jury summoned by Alexander Plunket of Balrath, sheriff of Meath, in either 1479 or 1480 found James Begge of Midnightstown guilty of trespass - Christ church deeds, no. 1029. The record commissioner's report on the memoranda rolls still extant in 1819 includes a roll of 20 Edw. IV with amercements of sheriffs and other officers who failed to come to Easter proffers that year (1480). Philip Eustace and Alexander Plunkett are named, counties not given - 8th report of the Record Commiss., supplement 7, p. 537.

Thomas Everdon	Keeper of the rolls	1400	Pat 1 H IV	App Apr. Possibly dpty Treasurer of Ire - Pat 1 H IV no 118
Thomas Everdon, Clerk	Keeper of the rolls	1406	CI 7 H IV	Ordered to inform K of reason why land of Roger Christopher seized into the king's hand
Thomas Cusack	Justice	1421	Dryburgh and Smith (eds.) Handbook & select calendar of sources for medieval Ireland in the National Archives of the United Kingdom (Dublin, 2004), pp. 179-80	Office uncertain. Probably a justice of the liberty of Meath, possibly a justice of the peace there. Thomas Fleming, baron of Slane, petitions the king 'before 2 June 1421' complaining of the forcible entry of Thomas Cusack and others into his lands at Culmullin in the liberty of Meath. He asks the king's councillors to consider that Thomas Cusack "is one of the justices there and is seneschal of the said liberty and, as such, ought to have records and executions of such forcible entries".
Nicholas Savage	Justice of the gaol	1424	RC 8/40 169	Writ issued in Hilary term 2 Hen. VI (1424) to seneschal of Meath to distrain Savage and Staunton, justices of the gaol. Their jurisdiction is not mentioned, but presumably was, or at least included, the liberty of Trim.
John Staunton	Justice of the gaol	1424	RC 8/40 169	Writ issued in Hilary term 2 Hen. VI (1424) to seneschal of Meath to distrain Savage and Staunton, justices of the gaol. Their jurisdiction is not mentioned, but presumably was, or at least included, the liberty of Trim.
Philip White, Clerk	Keeper of records	1425	Cal. Carew MSS , v, p. 356	In February 1425 a writ was directed from chancery to Philip White, clk, keeper of the treasury of books and records of Edward (recte Edmund) earl of March and Ulster and lord of Trim, in the castle of Trim, to certify the causes of the taking of the manor of Kilskeer (bar. Kells) into the hands of Roger Mortimer, late lord of Trim. See also Potterton, Trim, p. 374
Nicholas Barnewall, Esquire	Treasurer	1436	NLI 13, p. 151	Treasurer of Richard Duke of York, hears an assise of novel disseisin, at Trim, October 1436.
Nicholas Barnewall	Treasurer	1440	CPR 1436-41 , p. 501	Appointed with Christopher Barnewall, chief justice of Ireland, and others to inquire concerning the election of Edmund Porter as abbot of St Mary's of Trim, 27 Oct.

Other liberty officers, 1399-1513

Nicholas Barnewall	Treasurer	1443	Ann. MacFirb , p. 202	Entry for 1443 in which the treasurer of Meath, ".i. the Barnwalls sonn" caused conflict between the English of Meath and the Berminghams of Carbury by insulting a prominent member of the Bermingham family "in the greate court in the town of Ath-truim". Nicholas Barnewall, as treasurer of the liberty, paid rent for the site of Trim castle to the Archbishop of Armagh in May 1443 - Register of Primate John Swayne , p. 40.
(Blank) Barnewall	Treasurer	1445	Ann. MacFirb , p. 210	An account in the Irish annals for the period 1443-1468 transcribed and translated by Duaid MacFirbis (Dubháltach Mac Firbhisigh) for Sir James Ware in the 17th century includes an entry for 1445 in which the "innumerable greate preyes" were taken by the English "by the Threasurer, .i. Barnwall". It is possible that Christopher Barnewall, who served as treasurer of Ireland for a few months in 1437, is meant; but Nicholas Barnewall, attested as treasurer of Trim in 1440, seems a more likely candidate.
William Boys	Justice to hold pleas	1447	Cal. Carew MSS , v, p. 450	Writ of Richard, Duke of York, to William Boys, justice to hold pleas before his seneschal of the liberty of Meath according to the law and custom of the said liberty, and others, appointing them justices of assise of novel disseisin in case between John, Earl of Shrewsbury and William Nugent, Joan his wife and Richard Starkey, esq. Witnessed by Chrisopher fitz Christopher Plunkett, knight, seneschal of the said liberty, at Trim, 1 August 25 Hen. VI (1447). The justices so appointed directed a writ to John Delahide, sheriff of the liberty, to cause the defendants to appear - Lodge MS 1, p. 55
William Welles, Knight	Chancellor	1450	Stat. Rolls Ire. Hen. VI , pp. 280-1	As seneschal and chancellor of Trim, given power to exercise office by deputy by the Irish parliament in November 1450.

Other liberty officers, 1399-1513

Richard Welles [Well']	Chancellor	1450	NLI 13, p. 151	Highly questionable. Seneschal and chancellor in 1450 according to a list of seneschals compiled in the 18th century from unknown sources. William Welles was seneschal and chancellor in that year, so it may be that Richard is simply in error; or he may have been William's deputy in those offices. As seneschal and chancellor of Trim, given power to exercise office by deputy by the Irish parliament in November 1450 - Stat. Rolls Ire. Hen. VI, pp. 280-1.
Nicholas Harpisfield	Clerk of the rolls	1460	Stat. Rolls Ire. Hen. VI , pp. 796-7	Three offices, by grant of Richard, duke of York: chancellor of the green wax, chief remembrancer of the exchequer of Trim, and clerk of the rolls of the chancery of Trim. Nicholas has license of absence from Ireland from the Irish parliament in 1460. See also Potterton, Trim, p. 374.
Edward Plunket, Esquire	Treasurer	1472	RC 8/41 366	Granted the office during good behaviour, by George, Duke of Clarence, apparently on or before 14 September 1472 - RC 8/41, 366-7.
Henry Grey, Lord Grey; Knight	Treasurer	1478	CPR 1477-85 , pp. 73-4	Grant in March 1478 of the offices seneschal and treasurer of the liberty for life. Confirmed by the Irish parliament in November 1478 - Stat. Rolls Ire. Edw. IV , ii, pp. 666-71. See also Potterton, Trim, p. 373
Robert Sherlock, Portreeve of Athboy	Baron of the exchequer	1479	Christ church deeds , no. 1021	With John Danston, justice of King's Bench, and others, hears testimony at Athboy regarding lands of William Sutton, late baron of the Exchequer, in Dublin and Athboy
Thomas Wattenhull	Recorder of the exchequer	1479	Christ church deeds , no. 1021	Ambiguously phrased; possibly 'recorder of exchequer of the liberty', 'recorder of the liberty', or 'recorder of Athboy'. With John Danston, justice of King's Bench, and others, hears testimony at Athboy regarding lands of William Sutton, late baron of the Exchequer, in Dublin and Athboy

Reginald Cruise	1468	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 226v	Date uncertain, but sometime between March 1467 and March 1470. Cruise is named as escheator on the sixth membrane of the memoranda roll of 7-9 Edw. IV (1467-70); the position on the roll suggests a date of 1467 but there is no further detail in Ferguson's notes to confirm this. John Barnewall, named on the same part of the same roll as sheriff of Dublin, appears to have been appointed to that office in late 1468 - NAI, Ferguson Coll. 3, p. 226. A date before March 1469 is probable given the existence of a separate roll for 9 Edw. IV alone - ibid. , pp. 228-228v

Walter Golding, Gentleman [of Churchton]	Liberty	1456	Pat 35 H VI	"By election of the community of the liberty of Meath"
John Delahide, Knight	County	1459	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 50	Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 37 Hen. VI (1458-9) wherein he is named as escheator.
Robert Read [of Readstown]	County	1460	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 131	Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 38 Hen. VI (1459-60) wherein he is named as escheator.
Thomas Nangle, Baron of Navan	County	1461	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, pp. 111-12	Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 39 Hen. VI (Sept. 1460-March 1461) wherein he is named as escheator.
Thomas Kent	County	1462	Stat. Rolls Ire. Edw. IV , i, pp. 418-23	Date uncertain but in office at some point between Michaelmas 1461 and Martinmas 1465. Thomas Kent of Danestown, gentleman, held an inquisition concerning a grant of lands in Macetown to Ferold Osrydan, an Irishman, in Michaelmas 1462. The capacity in which Thomas held this inquisition is not given but it is likely that this took place when he was escheator - RC 8/41, pp. 65-70.
Thomas Nangle, Baron of Navan	County	1466	RC 8/41 26	Proffers Easter 6 Edw. 4 [1466]. Appointed 5 Edw. IV (1465-1466) - NAI Ferguson repertory, iv, p. 31.

Escheators and clerks of the market of Meath, 1399-1513

Name	Bailiwick	Date	Reference	Notes
John Durham [of Durhamstown]	County	1468	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 226v	Date uncertain, but sometime between March 1467 and March 1470. Durram's appointment by election is recorded on the sixth membrane of the memoranda roll of 7-9 Edw. IV (1467-70); the position on the roll suggests a date of 1467 but there is no further detail in Ferguson's notes to confirm this. John Barnewall, named on the same part of the same roll as sheriff of Dublin, appears to have been appointed to that office in late 1468 - NAI, Ferguson Coll. 3, p. 226. A date before March 1469 is probable given the existence of a separate roll for 9 Edw. IV alone - ibid. , pp. 228-228v
Thomas Nangle, Baron of Navan	County	1468	NAI Ferguson repertory iv, p. 31	Date uncertain. Ferguson's index to the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 7, 8, 9 Edw. IV (1467-70) in which he is apparently appointed escheator.
Walter Cusack [of Gerrardstown]	County	1469	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 228	Escheator in 9 Edw. IV (1469-70).
Thomas Nangle, Esquire [of Ardsallagh]	County	1470	Pat 10 E IV	4 Nov. Elected by commons of the county - RC 8/41, 209.
Gerald Fitz Gerald [fitz Gerrot]	County	1473	Christ church deeds , no. 997	Holds inquisition at Dunboyne on Thursday before the feast of St. Ambrose, bishop, 13 Edw. IV, into lands of William Balfe of Galmoleston, gent
Christopher Barnewall [of Crickstown]	County	1478	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 235	Escheator in 18 Edw. IV (1478-9).
James Dillon, Gentleman [of Skreen]	County	1480	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 220	Appointed escheator in 20 Edw. IV (1480-1481). Described as late escheator in 23 Edw. IV (1483-4) - NAI, Ferguson Coll. 3, pp. 220, 306 (cf. ibid. , p. 243, where he is described as simply escheator in 23 Edw. IV. The reference comes from the same membrane of the same roll as the reference on p. 306, so it would appear that Ferguson simply omitted the word 'late' in the earlier instance).

Chief serjeants and serjeants of Meath, 1399-1513

William Large	Subserjeant (Skreen)	1415	RC 8/37 157-61	Accused of wrongfully empanelling Thomas Carrew and Richard Brown, July 1415, and wrongfully empanelling Thomas Allen at Trim the following March - RC 8/37, 157-61. The reference to Trim may mean he was subserjeant of Navan also.
Roger Chambers	Subserjeant (Duleek)	1416	RC 8/36 615-16	Robert Chambers and Robert Mulghan, subserjeants of Duleek, committed to custody of the marshal of the exchequer there to remain until they make fine for contempts committed by them.
Robert Mulghan	Subserjeant (Duleek)	1416	RC 8/36 615-16	Robert Chambers and Robert Mulghan, subserjeants of Duleek, committed to custody of the marshal of the exchequer there to remain until they make fine for contempts committed by them.
William French	Subserjeant (Skreen)	1416	RC 8/36 56	Subserjeant July 1415. Found guilty of wrongful impanellment. Called serjeant of Screen in Easter term 4 Hen. V (1416) when seneschal of Meath ordered to summon a jury to decide on his guilt in case of contempt - RC 8/36, p. 719
Thomas Cook [Cok; Cook or Cock?]	Subserjeant (Deece)	1417	RC 8/38 35-7	Office uncertain but subserjeant of Deece likely. Jury finds Thomas guilty of two cases of wrongful empanelment, one in 1415 and one in 1417. Neither his office or the barony are named, but others found guilty of the same offence are serjeants (subservientes) of baronies, and both instances take place in the barony of Deece: Moygaddy in 1415 and Ballyrodan (Rodanstown) in 1417
Gilchrist O'Farrell [Oferoll]	Subserjeant (Lune)	1417	RC 8/38, 98-100	Inquisition before the barons of the exchequer in 1420 finds Gilchrist guilty of contempt committed in April 1420, while another inquisition of May 1417 finds him guilty of a separate contempt in that year. Makes fine for contempt, 4 July 1420 - RC 8/39, 10-11.
William Large	Subserjeant (Crosslands)	1418	RC 8/37 157-61	Accused of wrongfully empanelling William Rivers, William Heyne and John French in March 1418 (or perhaps 1417).
John Bydyl	Subserjeant (Crosslands)	1420	RC 8/39 8-9	Date not given. In June 1420 as late subserjeant makes fine for contempt.
William Large	Subserjeant (Crosslands)	1420	RC 8/38, 123-5	Accused of accepting payment for release of summons, April 1420.
John More	Subserjeant (Kells)	1420	RC 8/38 43-5	Convicted of wrongful empanelment.
Gilchrist O'Farrell [Oferoll]	Subserjeant (Lune)	1420	RC 8/38, 98-100	Inquisition before the barons of the exchequer in 1420 finds Gilchrist guilty of contempt committed in April 1420, while another inquisition of May 1417 finds him guilty of a separate contempt. Makes fine for contempt, 4 July 1420 - RC 8/39, 10-11.
Walter Tuite	Subserjeant (Skreen)	1420	RC 8/39 4	Makes fine for contempt, 17 April.
William Large	Subserjeant (Crosslands)	1421	RC 8/39, 232-3	Accused of wrongful empanelment, September 1421.
William Fitz Eustace [Son of John; Fitz Eustace]	Chief serjeant (County)	1422	Pat 10 H V	To have by self or deputy during good behaviour, 18 June 1422 - RC 8/39, 238. Gorman mistakenly reads this as 10 Hen. VI - Gorman, 'Richard, duke of York', p. 173.
William Large	Subserjeant (Crosslands)	1422	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 55v	Subserjeant of the cross of Meath, 10 Hen. V (1422).
Walter Sherlock	Chief serjeant (County)	1424	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 137	Probably in error. Ferguson's index to the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 2 Hen. VI (1423-4) in which he is named as chief serjeant of Co. Meath. Elsewhere he is attested as chief serjeant of Kildare - CIRCLE, Pat. 1 Hen. VI, no. 129.
Maurice Avenall	Chief serjeant (Crosslands)	1425	Pat 3 H VI	"to have by himself and deputies during good behaviour"

Chief serjeants and serjeants of Meath, 1399-1513

Thomas Bacon	Chief serjeant (County)	1425	Stat. Rolls Ire. Edw. IV, i, pp. 192-5	Date uncertain. In 1463 Thomas Bermingham was reinstated to the office of chief serjeant, his by right by descent from Thomas Bacon; William Hyndeley to show title. Potterton lists Bacon as chief serjeant "c. 1425"; presumably on basis that he was escheator in that year - Trim, p. 375.
William Sutton [Junior]	Chief serjeant (County)	1432	Pat 10 H VI	App'd Apr 1432
Nicholas Whitechurch	Chief serjeant (Crosslands)	1435	NLI 761 p. 299	Date not specified but apparently 1434-6. Account of Kildare for the period 6 Oct. 1434 to 18 Apr. 1436 by John Eustace of Newland and Edward Fitz Eustace, knight, sheriffs, names Whitechurch as chief serjeant of the cross of Meath, though no further details are given by which to determine whether Whitechurch was a serving or former officer.
Maurice Avenall	Chief serjeant (Crosslands)	1440	CPR 1436-41, p. 375	9 Feb., grant to him of the office of clerk of the crown and of common pleas in Ireland by self or deputy, with accustomed fees, notwithstanding that he had the office of the chief serjeanty of 'la Croce' of Meath in Ireland, of the value of 20s a year.
John Bermingham [of Oldtown]	Chief serjeant (County)	1452	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 8	Ferguson's index of the memorandas roll includes reference to an entry on the roll of 30 Hen. VI (1451-2) wherein he is named as chief serjeant of Meath.
Walter Freeman [Freman]	Chief serjeant (Liberty)	1453	Pat 31 H VI	Pardon for intrusion
Robert (recte John?) Norpeys [Recte Norreys, Norris?]	Chief serjeant (Crosslands)	1457	CPR 1452-61, p. 351	12 Mar., grant to him of the office of chief serjeant of the cross, Meath, Ireland, and waterbailiff of Ireland, for life, with usual fees etc. This entry is indexed as John Norpeys, while all other index entries for Robert Norpeys correspond with entries where John Noreys or Norreys is named and Robert Norpeys is not.
William Hendeley [Hyndeley]	Chief serjeant (County)	1461	CPR 1461-67, p. 47	Appointed by English letters patent in August, 1461. In 1463 Thomas Bermingham was reinstated to the office by the Irish parliament, with Hendeley summoned to show title - Stat. Rolls Ire. Edw. IV, i, p. 193
Thomas Bermingham	Chief serjeant (County)	1463	Stat. Rolls Ire. Edw IV, i, pp. 192-3	Thomas Bermingham reinstated to office which is his by descent from Thomas Bacon; William Hendeley to show title

Robert Andrew	Subserjeant (Duleek)	1466	Ellis, 'Local government officers, Co. Meath', p. 183
Peter Curtis [Curteys]	Chief serjeant (County)	1471	CPR 1467-77, p. 273	29 Aug. 1471, grant (by English letters patent) for life of the office of chief serjeant of Meath to the king's servants Peter Curteys and Edmund White.
Edmund White	Chief serjeant (County)	1471	CPR 1467-77, p. 273	29 Aug. 1471, grant (by English letters patent) for life of the office of chief serjeant of Meath to the king's servants Peter Curteys and Edmund White.
Richard Loghan	Subserjeant (Duleek)	1485	RC 8/43 33	The plea roll of 1 Hen. VII (1485-6) records an attack on his servant (famulus) John Gafney when making an arrest.

Chief serjeants and serjeants of Meath, 1399-1513

Edward Bermingham, Gentleman	Chief serjeant (County)	1493	Stat. Rolls Ire. Ric. III-Hen. VIII , p. 73	Confirmation to Edward Bermingham of the office of chief serjeant, of which he and his ancestors were seised beyond the time of memory.
Thomas Bermingham [Late of Swords]	Chief serjeant (County)	1493	NAI Ferguson repertory iv, p. 55	Date uncertain; presumably before the confirmation to Edward in 1493. Ferguson's index to the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 13 Hen. VII (1497-8) in which Edward Bermingham is named as brother and heir of Thomas, late of Swords, tenant of serjeanty of Meath.
Edward Bermingham [Brother and heir of Thomas]	Chief serjeant (County)	1498	NAI Ferguson repertory iv, p. 55	Ferguson's index to the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 13 Hen. VII (1497-8) in which Edward Bermingham is named as brother and heir of Thomas, late of Swords, tenant of serjeanty of Meath.
John Roche, Gentleman	Chief serjeant (County)	1498	RC 8/43 118	Granted the office 30 November 1498.
William Murray [Murrey]	Subserjeant (Skreen)	1510	TCD MS 594, f. 7	Date uncertain but 1510 likely. Command from Christopher Cusack, sheriff of Meath, to William Murrey, subserjeant (where 'su' for sub are interpolated superscript) of Skreen, Nicholas Cusack and Richard Cusack 'my deputies in that part'.

Undersheriffs of Dublin, 1399-1513

Name	Date	Reference	Notes
John Barrett, Clerk	1403	Pat 4 H IV	Receives letters of pardon, February 1403.
John Barrett, Clerk	1416	RC 8/36 613	Sworn to render account for Walter Tyrel, sheriff, 6 October 1416 - RC8.36 p. 613. Undersheriff for Walter Tyrell in Michaelmas. Also bailiff of Dublin during mayoralty of Walter Tyrell - Foley, p. 287, n. 96
John Barrett	1420	RC 8/38 289	Sheriff of Dublin ordered to pay John Barrett, undersheriff of the same, 40s, 9 December 1420.
John Barrett	1422	RC 8/39 234	Sheriff of Dublin ordered to pay John Barrett, undersheriff of the same, 40s, 26 June 1422.
Michael Travers, Gentleman [Trevers]	1449	Stat. Rolls Ire. Hen VI , pp. 754-7	Date uncertain. Travers was undersheriff before 1451 when, when he sued a bill of debt against Piers Coolock for money owed to Travers from his period in office. Presumably his service predated the appointment of Andrew Tyrell as undersheriff in August 1449 - NAI, M. 2675 (Delafield MS), p. 64.
Andrew Tyrell, Clerk	1449	NAI, M.2675 (Delafield MS), p. 64	Sworn in as undersheriff to Thomas Field of Fieldstown, esq., 28 October 1449
Andrew Tyrell	1452	Stat. Rolls Ire. Hen VI , pp. 704-7	Extends lands of debtor on behalf of sheriff Robert Bath, 1451 or 1452.
Thomas Duff [Dove]	1453	NAI Ferguson repertory iii, p. 54	Date uncertain. Ferguson's index of the memoranda rolls includes reference to an entry on the roll of 31 Hen. VI (1452-3) wherein he is named late undersheriff of Dublin.
John Wallingford	1465	RC 8/41 59-60	In May 1466 Wallingford, late subsheriff of Peter Travers, late sheriff, was accused of embezzling the issues of the county court in November 1465 for Travers' personal use.
John Wallingford, Clerk	1466	RC 8/41 32	Sworn in 16th October 1466 as undersheriff for recently elected James Blakeney
Nicholas Fitzlyons [Fitz Leones]	1472	RC 8/41 353
John Luttrell	1494	RC 8/43 53	Appointment of Thomas fitz Williamas sheriff 21 Jan; John Luttrell as his deputy in the same office

Staff of the sheriffs and seneschals of Meath, 1399-1513

Name	Office	Date	Reference	Notes
William Stakeboll	Clerk of the seneschal	1414	RC 8/34 172-3	Seizes a horse from John Cruise as clerk of John Darcy, seneschal of Meath.
Stephen Philpot [Filpot?]	Undersheriff (Cross of Meath)	1416	RC 8/36 615	King's attorney; 15th October 4 H V sworn to render faithful account. Undersheriff May 1416; guilty of wrongful empanelment - RC 8/36, pp. 200-1
John Allen [Alleyn]	Undersheriff (Cross of Meath)	1420	RC 8/39 9	Makes fine for contempt, 20 June.
John Lawless	Clerk of the seneschal	1420	RC 8/39 8	Makes fine for contempt, 22 May. Possibly this should be read John Lawless, clerk, seneschal of Meath, but clerk of the seneschal is likely correct.
Matthew English	Clerk of the sheriff	1425	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 32	Came before the barons of the exchequer on the 5th of July 4 Hen. VI (1426) and was sworn into office as clerk of Christopher Plunkett, sheriff of Meath. English swore to serve the "king ... and the loyal people of the king in all things touching the said office of sheriff, both in return of writs of this exchequer and otherwise".
Stephen Palmer	Undersheriff	1427	CI 5 H VI	Pleaded that he served the king well and faithfully in levying the green wax in Co. Meath and various other matters there, by order of James Butler, earl of Ormond, justiciar of Ireland. King's justice at pleas, c. 1431 - Irish exchequer payments, p. 574. Received a payment of £8 in February 1427 - TNA E 101/247/20.
Maurice Avenall	Undersheriff	1431	TNA E 101/248/8	Received a payment of 100s in March in name of reward. See also Potterton Trim , p. 373; Ir. Exch. Payments , p. 569
Maurice Avenall	Clerk of the seneschal	1447	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 159	Appointed by Christopher Plunkett, seneschal, as his clerk to do all things pertaining to that office, 15 June 1447, and sworn in the same day.
Walter White [of Angevillstown]	Clerk of the seneschal	1457	NAI Ferguson Coll. 3, f. 206v	Sworn into office 12 May 35 Hen. VI (1457).
Thomas Fitz Gerald, Earl of Desmond	Deputy seneschal	1463	NLI 13, p. 151	Seneschal in 1463 according to a list of seneschals compiled in the 18th century from unknown sources.
John White	Clerk of the sheriff	1465	RC 8/41 152-3	Clerk of Edward Plunkett, sheriff of Meath. He was assaulted in the course of his duties at Laytown in late March 1465.
John Avenall, Gentleman	Clerk of the seneschal	1472	RC 8/41 366-7	Granted the office during good behaviour, by George, Duke of Clarence, 14 September 1472.
Thomas Clerk	Clerk of the seneschal	1472	RC 8/41 343-4	Arrested an affer in June 1472 as one of the clerks of Robert Bold, lately sheriff. Sheriff would appear to be in error as Bold was appointed seneschal of the liberty in May - RC 8/41, p. 313.
Oliver Plunkett	Deputy seneschal	1478	NAI Ferguson repertory, iv, p. 25	Appointed by Sir Henry Grey as his deputy, 18 Edw. IV (1478-9).
John Field, Gentleman [of Fieldstown]	Undersheriff (Meath)	1491	NAI, M.2675 (Delafield MS), p. 74	Sworn in as deputy sheriff of Co. Meath, 21 April.

Name	Office	Date	Reference	Notes
Thomas Barnewall	Undersheriff	1508	RC 8/43 228	Sworn into office alongside sheriff George Fleming, 7 Feb. 1508 - RC 8/43, 228.
Nicholas Cusack	Undersheriff (Skreen?)	1510	TCD MS 594, f. 7	Date uncertain but 1510 likely; bailiwick uncertain. Command from Christopher Cusack, sheriff of Meath, to William Murrey, subserjeant (where 'su' for sub are interpolated superscript) of Skreen, Nicholas Cusack and Richard Cusack 'my deputies in that part'. Possibly their bailiwick was Skreen or a larger area including Skreen.
Richard Cusack	Undersheriff (Skreen?)	1510	TCD MS 594, f. 7	Date uncertain but 1510 likely; bailiwick uncertain. Command from Christopher Cusack, sheriff of Meath, to William Murrey, subserjeant (where 'su' for sub are interpolated superscript) of Skreen, Nicholas Cusack and Richard Cusack 'my deputies in that part'. Possibly their bailiwick was Skreen or a larger area including Skreen. Richard reappears in November when Thomas (probably in error for Christopher) Cusack, esq., sheriff of Meath, ordered Meiler Walsh and Richard Cusack, 'my deputies in that part' to return an offer wrongly taken by the prioress of Lismullen from Thomas Fisher of Termonfeckin. As Termonfeckin is not in Meath, and as Lismullen is in the barony of Skreen and Richard Cusack had apparently earlier served Thomas' father Christopher as his deputy in Skreen (?) it is likely that their bailiwick was Skreen or at least included Skreen - TCD MS 594, f. 25v
Meiler Walsh	Undersheriff (Skreen?)	1510	TCD MS 594, f. 25v	In November 1510 Thomas Cusack (probably in error for Christopher), esq., sheriff of Meath, ordered Meiler Walsh and Richard Cusack, 'my deputies in that part' to return an offer wrongly taken by the prioress of Lismullen from Thomas Fisher of Termonfeckin. As Termonfeckin is not in Meath, and as Lismullen is in the barony of Skreen and Richard Cusack had apparently earlier served Thomas' father Christopher as his deputy in Skreen (?) it is likely that their bailiwick was Skreen or at least included Skreen.

John Brown [of Newtown]	Receiver subsidy	1422	RC 8/39 292	Kyld' in margin appears to have been deliberately erased, in which case Meath is intended. Previous connection of both men with Meath supports this conclusion. In Easter term 10 Hen. V (1422) sheriff to distrain Stephen Palmer and John Brown, receivers of a subsidy granted to James Butler earl of Ormond. This surmise is confirmed by a later writ to sheriff of Meath to distrain both men - RC 8/39, 303.
